FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 10, 2020

Your NuHorizons, Inc. (“NuHorizons”) is pleased to announce that it has entered into a partnership with Right Beginnings, Inc. (“Right Beginnings”) to assist Right Beginnings in expanding programs and services offered through its workforce development Job for Women Program for victims of domestic violence. Right Beginnings based in Washington, D.C., operates its Jobs for Women Program at the Freddi House emergency shelter which has provided emergency shelter for over 10 years, serving over 2,500 women (and over 500 children) who are residents of the District of Columbia.

NuHorizons will oversee the administrative operations of the Right Beginnings Support Project which has a goal of raising funds to expand the workforce development program and also operate a transitional housing facility for women victims of domestic violence.

NuHorizons Board member and Jobs for Women Program Director Kaitlyn Carpenter stated, “NuHorizons is pleased to be a part of assisting Right Beginnings in providing expanded programs and services to women victims of domestic violence.”

Your NuHorizons, Inc. is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization with a mission statement of providing programs and services to victims of domestic violence, sexual assault and sexual harassment.
